News has been received by the brigantine J. D. Spreckels, that Mr. Hendricks, Vice-President of the United States, died at Annapolis, Md., on the 24th of November.

The King of Spain is also dead.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

The steamer Mokili is expected to arrive this evening.

GOSPEL. Temperance meeting in the Bethel Union vestry this evening, 7.30.

PURSER Smith of the steamer Kilauea reports fearful winds at Kalahele from all points of the compass.

MARY Kemahalaui ran away from her husband some time in November, for which she was called up, this morning, before the Police Court, and ordered to return.

A TELEPHONE man says the wind was raging so severely this morning in some places that the wires were blown off the poles before they could reach their destination.

The steamer St. Paul is supposed to have left San Francisco for this port seven days ago to-day. Capt. Fuller expects her to-morrow. He says the wind at sea is pretty fresh, and it is in favor of the steamer.

A LURID GLARE in the northern sky, between nine and ten o'clock last night, made the whole town besiege "Central." In a few minutes a message was received from Kaneohe, stating that the illumination was caused by burning trash on the Heeia plantation.

New games will be introduced in the billiard rooms of the Hawaiian Hotel this evening. A new carom table has been placed in position, and is said to be a very fine as well as costly piece of furniture. A clam chowder will also be one of the events of the evening.

MR. J. Guilleman, a young Frenchman, and Mr. D. M. Gedge, both recently employed at G. W. Macfarlane & Co.'s, took passage by the bark Southern Chief this afternoon for Hongkong. The Southern Chief has 382 Chinese on board from Victoria, B. C., for Hongkong.

A NEW departure has been taken by the Pacific Navigation Company, in importing natives of the South

Sea Islands, to take the place of Hawaiians as sailors to man their vessels. Twenty-one natives of Rakahanga and Manakiki were brought yesterday by the schooner Malolo.

Two trips ago of the steamer Likelike, while a few thousand dollars were being sent ashore, one bag containing five hundred dollars in silver fell overboard. Native divers went down for it and Mr. Terrill, marine diver, in his rubber suit, also searched for the treasure, but all without success.

THE ladies assembled at the Yosemite Rink last evening in fair numbers to ballot for a turkey, to dance and to skate. After every lady had tried her luck at drawing the prize, it was announced that Miss Hatch was the winner. To-night the five-mile challenge race takes place and Mr. Wall extends a general invitation to the fair sex.

THE King and Queen, and Princesses Poomaikalani and Liliuokalani took the steamer Mokili from Lahaina to Maalaea Bay, Thursday night. On arrival at the landing yesterday morning the royal party were received by an avvil salute of twenty-one guns. Mr. W. H. Cornwell was on hand with a carriage, and conveyed the ladies to Wailuku.

At the regular monthly meeting last evening, the Myrtle Boat Club elected the following officers for the ensuing year:—President, C. J. McCarthy; Vice-President, W. C. King; Secretary, G. K. Wilder; Treasurer, A. M. Hewett; Captain, Oscar Branch; Trustees, Bruce Cartwright, C. H. Purdy, E. A. Jones; Investigating Committee, A. W. Carter, W. F. Love, C. Purdy.

DURING the darkest hours of last night while the wind was howling mournfully, Mr. J. Welsh, assisted by several policemen, prowled about the dark corners back of the Key-stone Saloon and Foster's harness shop, with dark-lanterns, looking for a supposed burglar. Mr. Welsh had heard a peculiar noise during the night, and suspected burglars. He called for the police and they all came, but only to go on a wild-goose chase.

LYONS & Cohen have everything in readiness for their grand Christmas sale this evening. The doorways are festooned with flags, and a gorgeous picture is presented in the large variety of rich goods, arranged with skill. The walls are hung in bright-colored textile fabrics, while dishes, toys, statuary, and a large variety of beautiful bric-a-brac cover an extensive area of table space. society by her Royal Highness. A small bottle of the same was also presented to every lady present. Her Royal Highness has expressed her sincere thanks to Messrs. John Gosnell & Co. This most exquisite of perfumes is now on sale at the store of M. McInerny. 195 2w

SECOND DISTRICT COURT.

The session of the Second District Court at Lahaina rose on Thursday last. Judge McCully and Attorney-General Neumann, with other members of the bar, took passage by the Mokili for Maalaea Bay, where they embarked on the Likelike, returning to town by the latter this morning.

In the Hana murder case, the jury retired at 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening, returning to Court at 10.30 with a verdict of manslaughter in the second degree. The prisoner was sentenced, on the following day, to five years' imprisonment at hard labor. Kauhane, the convict, it will be remembered, killed another native named Waiwai and seriously wounded two others, by stabbing, in a drunken brawl at a place about nine miles from Hana plantation, Maui, on the 13th of June last.

Momona, the leper who fatally wounded acting sheriff Kanohohau and his assistant and nephew, Kaimulani, at Kalaupapa Leper Settlement, Molokai, on the 29th of October last, pleaded guilty of manslaughter in the first degree, and was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Lohiloa, who was accessory to the crime, also pleaded guilty, and was given two and a half years' imprisonment. Their victims died shortly after the murderous assault upon them, both being buried together.

The Attorney-General prosecuted in both the above cases. Mr. W. A. Kinney defended Kauhane, and Mr. John Richardson appeared for the leper manslaughter.

THE KAUMAKAPILI SOCIABLE.

Last evening's sociable by the Kaumakapili Church Y. M. C. A. was very successfully carried out. There was a large attendance of members and guests. Mr. Henry Waterhouse gave an opening address, in which he asserted the value of such gatherings for creating more sociability among young Hawaiians. He introduced the General Secretary of the Association, who briefly addressed the gathering, and was followed by a Samoan, who spoke and sung in his native tongue, affording general amusement. Hon. J. M. Kapena gave the main speech, recounting his recent American tour. Rev. J. Waiama, pastor of the church, and Rev. S. Waiwale each addressed the company in pleasant terms. Both the King's Own and Queen's Own were guests of the occasion, mustering in goodly numbers. The choir and string band from the Kawaiahae congregation were present, helping very creditably in the enjoyment of the occasion. Refreshments completed the very enjoyable evening's programme.
